To Whom it may concern:

With the Church focusing more and more on the need for evangelization, very soon, we will see the need for real growth opportunities for those who have been evangelized. To meet Christ is one thing; to grow into a mature disciple is another thing, and that takes time and wisdom. New Leaven has developed an excellent approach to growing into discipleship so that a person's whole life is eventually transformed in every dimension.

I highly recommend it.
